

The Painful Truth About Declawing Cats

What Exactly Is Declawing?

Declawing is not like a manicure.

Declawing is a very serious surgery that involves 10 individual amputations of not just the cat's nails, but of the last digit/knuckle of each toe as well.

What Are The Risks/Dangers Of Declawing?

Constant Pain

Behavior Issues

Lameness

Are There Other Risks Of Declawing?

- Botched Surgery
- Nerve Damage
- Back and Leg Pain
- Loss of Balance
- Litterbox Avoidance

Keep The Claws On The Paws!

Declawing is Unnecessary, Painful, Cruel and Inhumane.

